Mission Statement
The mission of the campaign is to bring together the body of Christ in a spirit of unity during a focused 40-day campaign of prayer, fasting, and peaceful activism, with the purpose of repentance, to seek God's favor to turn hearts and minds from a culture of death to a culture of life, thus bringing an end to abortion. 40 Days for Life is a community-based campaign that takes a determined, peaceful approach to showing local communities the consequences of abortion in their own neighborhoods, for their own friends and families. It puts into action a desire to cooperate with God in the carrying out of His plan for the end of abortion. It draws attention to the evil of abortion through the use of a three-point program: Prayer and fasting Constant vigil Community outreach The 40-day campaign tracks Biblical history, where God used 40-day periods to transform individuals, communities ... and the entire world. From Noah in the flood to Moses on the mountain to the disciples after Christ's resurrection, it is clear that God sees the transformative value of His people accepting and meeting a 40-day challenge.

Mission Statement

Faithful to the teachings of the Founder, the Apostolic Movement of Schoenstatt aims at forming personalities and Christian communities that are capable of freely supporting God's plan in the world in which they live. The formation proposed by the Movement is based on self-education, faith in Providence, the pursuit of holiness in daily life, and readiness and willingness to be instruments in God's hands. The particular purpose of the Movement is the spiritual renewal of Christians, which is achieved by promoting educational and religious activities and social projects, also in cooperation with other ecclesial movements.

Mission Statement

We all look for meaning in our ministries and lives. Do you desire inner freedom? Do you feel a 'tug' to a deeper relationship with God? Do you want to learn new ways of prayer, decision making, and spiritual activities, to know more about Ignatian spirituality?

CASEA invites people of ages, teen to adult, to experience the Spiritual Exercises developed by St. Ignatius of Loyola more than 500 years ago; Exercises so profound that their 'way of proceeding' still resonates in this modern and busy world.

Recognizing that busyness of life, we offer the Spiritual Exercises with differing levels of time commitments for individuals or groups, face-to-face or online:

- Tasters - which can be used for short evening sessions (for example, in parishes or other groups) based on themes suitable for any liturgical season or for other specific desires or needs or for renewal. These short exercises can be adapted to facilitate full day retreats, weekend retreats or longer. They are suitable as part of workshops and conferences.

- First Spiritual Exercises (FSE)- for those who desire a longer focused retreat, we provide four-week retreats in daily life with trained 'Givers', online or face-to-face.

- Spiritual Exercises - CASEA members offer spiritual accompaniment one-on-one through the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius: the Nineteenth Annotation: (i.e. in daily life, a nine month commitment), and the 30 day intensive experience.

The Exercises aim to help people find God in all things and enhance the ministries in which they are involved. Members of CASEA offer ongoing spiritual direction as well. All persons who have completed the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius (the Nineteenth Annotation or other forms) are welcome to join CASEA. At our monthly online meetings, members of CASEA support and accompany each other in our faith journeys, and, through study, grow in our understanding of God in our lives.

CASEA is an ecumenical group, initiated by Jesuits, which aligns with the church pillars of Formation, Outreach and Community. It is an autonomous lay association and collaborates with the Jesuits and other Ignatian groups Finally, we are all collaborators with Jesus who says in John 7:37b-38 "Let anyone who is thirsty come to me and let one who believes in me drink. As the scripture has said 'Out of the believer's heart shall flow rivers of living water'"

Mission Statement

The Catholic Women's League of Canada is a national organization rooted in gospel values calling its members to holiness through service to the people of God. The Catholic Women's League of Canada is the largest women's organization in Canada. Its mission is the religious renewal of the "people of God" as envisioned by the documents of Vatican II. To realize its mission, the League sees itself as having these principal ministries: to plan, develop and coordinate programs directed toward the individual and collective spiritual development of members to encourage and support the development of Christian values throughout society and, in particular, the image of family to represent Catholic women and their views on topics of national interest and importance, and to communicate those views to church, government and society at large to plan, direct and coordinate the work of Catholic women in support of religious, charitable and community activities to provide a vehicle for communication and the development of Christian companionship among Catholic women everywhere

Mission Statement

We are a community of lay, women, and men striving to lead a life of constant conversion. In this effort the Blessed Sacrament is our source of life and the Blessed Virgin Mary our inspiration. Our mission is to form missionary disciples by providing spiritual companionship through formation, spiritual exercises, prayer, and service. Our program of formation is rooted in the teachings of the Catholic Church and our spirituality is inspired by St. Teresa of Jesus and St. John of the Cross; it is delivered on a one-to-one basis and small missionary communities in parishes, in Spanish and English. Individuals enter the Society of Missionaries of God's Love to learn and then go out in mission to share the love of God in the family, the parish and the society.

Mission Statement

Our mission is to share the Light of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Joy of our Salvation, and our faith in Him through our own personal testimonies of the power of His Word such as our conversion through repentance and deliverance from the bondage of sin and vices; the transformation from our old self-centered, destructive and confused lives to new victorious lives in Christ Jesus; and the healing of our broken relationships and physical ailments. We want to let the people know that God is alive, that He loves and cares for us and that He is willing to forgive us, heal our diseases, and deliver us from all our troubles if we repent of our sins, turn away from our wicked ways, and establish a personal relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ Who shall set our hearts on fire with the love of God and neighbor.

Mission Statement

Be the rock of your domestic church! God Squad challenges men to show the same servant leadership to their families that Christ has for His bride, the Church. God Squad Canada was formed by four Calgary police officers who witnessed first hand the breakdown of families, and saw that this was largely due to an abdication of true fatherhood. With a desire to counter the fatherless culture, the first catholic men's conference was held in 1998. The God Squad, in recent years, has been focusing more on attracting younger men to give them the tools to succeed as husbands and fathers.

Mission Statement

In response to Pope Benedict XVI's call to be "custodians of beauty," the Sacred Arts Guild of Alberta (SAGA) is a community of artists and associates who are interested in the study, preservation, and renewal of traditional methods for creating liturgical and sacred art in the Christian tradition. Our purpose is: To promote increased awareness and appreciation of ways that the beauty of liturgical and sacred art can enhance the meaning and understanding of faith within homes and parish communities. To encourage dialogue and learning between the Catholic artistic tradition and other Christian expressions of sacred art, particularly the Eastern iconographic tradition; To bring together those who wish to deepen their understanding of the traditions and various forms that Christian art has taken over the centuries; To foster the recovery of ancient and traditional methods of art and craft making that can be used to create new, contemporary expressions of the faith. To inspire collaboration between artists and artisans in the creation of new works; To deepen the understanding of the historical and theological foundations of liturgical and sacred art as a living tradition; To encourage the use of original works of liturgical art in homes, parishes, schools, and other public spaces. To encourage the professional development of artists, at all levels from beginners to professionals, in improving their skills and knowledge of sacred art. To provide resources for parishes and schools regarding the role of sacred art in community life In order to achieve these goals, the Sacred Arts Guild of Alberta will seek: To sponsor activities which promote the professional and personal development of the members of the society; To organize occasional workshops and talks for its members and the broader community; To hold regular open studios times and seek to establish a shared studio space for its members. To sponsor occasional exhibitions of the work of the guild's members in order to make their work better known within the community; To sponsor an annual guild Mass for artists, patrons, and friends of the arts; To establish a directory of artists and artisans who are involved in the liturgical and sacred arts in Alberta; To collaborate with other organizations that promote sacred art nationally and internationally To provide referrals and information resources among members.

Mission Statement
Using the resources of Father Michael E. Gaitleyl, MIC, specifically "33 Days to Morning Glory" people of the parish go on an individual 33 day retreat in preparation for Marian Consecration. Each week individuals gather with a leader, who has been consecrated to Mary, and discuss the past weeks readings. Then at the end of the 33 days we gather as a group and say a consecration prayer of " Morning Glory", or by St Louis de Montfort, or St Maximillian Kolbe.

Mission Statement

Secular Franciscans are Catholic men and women who seek to deepen their faith and pattern their lives on Jesus Christ, in the spirit of St. Francis of Assisi. We live and work in society. We are married, single, old, young, and from all walks of life. We seek to proclaim, by our example, the love, joy and mercy of Christ to the world. We are an order within the Catholic church, and are members of local Fraternities. Led by the Holy Spirit, we strive for perfect charity in our secular state. By our profession, we pledge to live the gospel in the manner of St. Francis in accordance with the rules approved by the Church. To follow the gospel of Christ in the footsteps of St. Francis, who made Christ the inspiration and centre of his life with God and with people, going from gospel to life and life to the gospel. (That is close to Article 4 of the OFS Rule approved by Paul VI in 1978, which is what I meant to write.)

Mission Statement

The Focolare's spirituality is unity and its aim is to help fulfill Jesus' Prayer "That they may all be one" (Jn 17:21). People of all ages and backgrounds strive to achieve this by living with the presence of Jesus among them (Jesus in the midst) and by embracing Jesus Forsaken in every suffering. Jesus in the midst refers to the Gospel sentence in which Jesus states that where two or more people are united in His name, which means in His love, He is present there (see Mt. 18:20). So it's something immense: the possibility of Christ's presence among us in our family, at work, school, our community, and allowing Him to guide and enlighten us. Jesus forsaken is the expression of the pain that Jesus suffered on earth, when at the climax of his suffering on the cross he cried out: "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" {Mk. 15:34) By welcoming Jesus' countenance in our personal suffering or in the suffering of other human beings, we can possess the key to unlock unity.
