Volunteer, Feed the Hungry

It was amazing! Definitely one of the very few churches doing Gods work ... so many are thankful for this meal each week, as am I, some weeks its the only real meal many of us eat.

Chris, Guest

After spending almost 6 months getting food at another agency I suppose anything tastes like a slice of heaven, but after having a good home cooked style meal at Feed the Hungry, I realized how much I missed living a normal life.

Dylan, Guest

Volunteering at Feed the Hungry has taught me that our guests are a gift to us and we are a gift to them. Both of us must be willing to give and to receive. Neither is better or superior. I also appreciate how quickly people's circumstances can change and the person served can become the one who serves, or vice versa.
