Mission Statement

The mission of the campaign is to bring together the body of Christ in a spirit of unity during a focused 40-day campaign of prayer, fasting, and peaceful activism, with the purpose of repentance, to seek God's favor to turn hearts and minds from a culture of death to a culture of life, thus bringing an end to abortion. 40 Days for Life is a community-based campaign that takes a determined, peaceful approach to showing local communities the consequences of abortion in their own neighborhoods, for their own friends and families. It puts into action a desire to cooperate with God in the carrying out of His plan for the end of abortion. It draws attention to the evil of abortion through the use of a three- point program: Prayer and fasting; Constant vigil; Community outreach. The 40-day campaign tracks Biblical history, where God used 40-day periods to transform individuals, communities ... and the entire world. From Noah in the flood, to Moses on the mountain, to the disciples after Christ's resurrection. it is clear that God sees the transformative value of His people accepting and meeting a 40-day challenge.

Mission Statement

In this devotion which is as old as the first Holy Thursday, its primary focus is PRAYERS. We are called to console and adore the Precious Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ by observing the Gethsemane Hour of prayers every Thursday night from 11pm into Friday Morning 3am. We strive to live our devotional way of life 'the dry and desert way' full of crosses, in reparation for our sins and those of the whole world and to renew the face of the earth during these challenging times; through observing Third Friday Reparations, September and the Great Month of July Novenas and Cenacle prayers. We believe the church and the world needs prayers and more prayers each passing day and members gain tremendous spiritual growth in the faith of the church.

Apostoli Viae

Apostoli Viae which means "Apostles of the Way" is a worldwide Catholic community dedicated to living the joyful adventure of the contemplative life and helping others to do the same. We are young and old joined together in community to live the radical calling of Jesus which begins on our knees at His feet, then we rise to bring the light of Christ to the world.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Apostles of the Way is to live, light, and lead the Way to union with God.

- To Live the Way is to understand, wholeheartedly embrace, and joyfully live the contemplative life.
- To Light the Way is to joyfully witness to, invite, reveal, and teach the contemplative path to all who thirst.
- To Lead the Way is to generously, personally, and individually serve, form, and guide pilgrims on the path to union with God and love of neighbor.

The charism of the Way is an intense orientation of life and an expression of love:
to God: We recognize that a covenantal encounter with Jesus, "The Way," opens the door to a living relationship with the Blessed Trinity and His call to a joyfully active pursuit of His way of holiness and sainthood resulting in union with Him and a life-giving love of His people. Union with the Blessed Trinity is the ultimate end of the Way.
to Contemplative Life: We commit to a joyful life of loving abandonment to God and pursuit of an ever-deepening relationship with Him through Eucharistic devotion, prayer, ascesis, and virtue as illuminated by the Holy Spirit's inspiration of the three ways and Carmelite spirituality.
to Self-Giving: We give ourselves to God and His people on the way, especially the poor, through the spiritual works of mercy, as we provide or support spiritual direction and Eucharistically centered formation to all seeking to know and then to deepen their relationship with God and His Church. Our proximate end is the instruction of souls in the interior life toward the end of union with God.

Mission Statement

Faithful to the teachings of the Founder, the Apostolic Movement of Schoenstatt aims at forming personalities and Christian communities that are capable of freely supporting God's plan in the world in which they live. The formation proposed by the Movement is based on self-education, faith in Providence, the pursuit of holiness in daily life, and readiness and willingness to be instruments in God's hands. The particular purpose of the Movement is the spiritual renewal of Christians, which is achieved by promoting educational and religious activities and social projects, also in cooperation with other ecclesial movements.

Mission Statement

We all look for meaning in our ministries and lives. Do you desire inner freedom? Do you feel a 'tug' to a deeper relationship with God? Do you want to learn new ways of prayer, decision making, and spiritual activities, to know more about Ignatian spirituality?

CASEA invites people of ages, teen to adult, to experience the Spiritual Exercises developed by St. Ignatius of Loyola more than 500 years ago; Exercises so profound that their 'way of proceeding' still resonates in this modern and busy world.

Recognizing that busyness of life, we offer the Spiritual Exercises with differing levels of time commitments for individuals or groups, face-to-face or online:

- Tasters- which can be used for short evening sessions (for example, in parishes or other groups) based on themes suitable for any liturgical season or for other specific desires or needs or for renewal. These short exercises can be adapted to facilitate full day retreats, weekend retreats or longer. They are suitable as part of workshops and conferences.

- First Spiritual Exercises (FSE) - for those who desire a longer focused retreat, we provide four-week retreats in daily life with trained 'Givers', online or face-to-face.

- Spiritual Exercises- CASEA members offer spiritual accompaniment one-on-one through the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius: the Nineteenth Annotation: (i.e. in daily life, a nine month commitment), and the 30 day intensive experience.

The Exercises aim to help people find God in all things and enhance the ministries in which they are involved. Members of CASEA offer ongoing spiritual direction as well. All persons who have completed the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius (the Nineteenth Annotation or other forms) are welcome to join CASEA. At our monthly online meetings, members of CASEA support and accompany each other in our faith journeys, and, through study, grow in our understanding of God in our lives.

CASEA is an ecumenical group, initiated by Jesuits, which aligns with the church pillars of Formation, Outreach and Community. It is an autonomous lay association and collaborates with the Jesuits and other Ignatian groups finally, we are all collaborators with Jesus who says in John 7:37b-38 "Let anyone who is thirsty come to me and let one who believes in me drink. As the scripture has said 'Out of the believer's heart shall flow rivers of living water'"

Mission Statement

In response to the Church's call to rediscover the Baptism in the Holy Spirit, the Calgary Catholic Charismatic Renewal Society (CCCRS) seeks to promote a deeper personal relationship with Jesus Christ through the experience of a New Pentecost. Empowered by the Holy Spirit and commissioned by our Baptism to the New Evangelization.

BRING Baptism in the Holy Spirit to the Diocese of Calgary and beyond

Empowered by the Holy Spirit, we are committed to fostering the Baptism in the Holy Spirit within the Diocese and beyond, echoing the directive of Acts 1:8, and sparking continual renewal reminiscent of Pentecost.

BUILD Unity in the Body of Christ

We rejuvenate hearts, minds, and communities through the transformative power of the Holy Spirit, fostering collaboration among Renewal Leaders, Church Leaders, Ecumenical Leaders, and Young Leaders, with the aim of realizing the unity Jesus prayed for in John 17.

SERVE the Poor

We heed the call and eagerly respond to serve the poor with compassion and humility, drawing inspiration from Matthew 25:40.

The Calgary Catholic Charismatic Renewal Society (CCCRS) faithfully carries out its mission in harmony with the goals of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal International Service (CHARIS).

OUR CORE VALUES

Faithfulness to Catholic Teaching: Upholding and promoting the teachings of the Catholic Church as the foundation of our beliefs and practices.

Empowerment through the Holy Spirit: Embracing the transformative power of the Holy Spirit in personal and communal spiritual growth, leading to a deeper relationship with God.

Discipleship and Leadership Development: Equipping and empowering individuals to become faithful disciples of Christ and nurturing future leaders within the Charismatic Renewal movement.

Service and Outreach: Demonstrating love for God and neighbor through acts of service and outreach, especially to the marginalized and those in need within our local community.

Mission Statement

We are a community of lay, women, and men striving to lead a life of constant conversion. In this effort the Blessed Sacrament is our source of life and the Blessed Virgin Mary our inspiration. Our mission is to form missionary disciples by providing spiritual companionship through formation, spiritual exercises, prayer, and service. Our program of formation is rooted in the teachings of the Catholic Church and our spirituality is inspired by St. Teresa of Jesus and St. John of the Cross; it is delivered on a one-to-one basis and small missionary communities in parishes, in Spanish and English. Individuals enter the Society of Missionaries of God's Love to learn and then go out in mission to share the love of God in the family, the parish and the society.

Mission Statement

Our mission is to share the Light of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Joy of our Salvation, and our faith in Him through our own personal testimonies of the power of His Word such as our conversion through repentance and deliverance from the bondage of sin and vices; the transformation from our old self-centered, destructive and confused lives to new victorious lives in Christ Jesus; and the healing of our broken relationships and physical ailments. We want to let the people know that God is alive, that He loves and cares for us and that He is willing to forgive us, heal our diseases, and deliver us from all our troubles if we repent of our sins, turn away from our wicked ways, and establish a personal relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ Who shall set our hearts on fire with the love of God and neighbor.

Mission Statement

In response to Pope Benedict XVI's call to be "custodians of beauty," the Sacred Arts Guild of Alberta (SAGA) is a community of artists and associates who are interested in the study, preservation, and renewal of traditional methods for creating liturgical and sacred art in the Christian tradition. Our purpose is: To promote increased awareness and appreciation of ways that the beauty of liturgical and sacred art can enhance the meaning and understanding of faith within homes and parish communities. To encourage dialogue and learning between the Catholic artistic tradition and other Christian expressions of sacred art, particularly the Eastern iconographic tradition; To bring together those who wish to deepen their understanding of the traditions and various forms that Christian art has taken over the centuries; To foster the recovery of ancient and traditional methods of art and craft making that can be used to create new, contemporary expressions of the faith. To inspire collaboration between artists and artisans in the creation of new works; To deepen the understanding of the historical and theological foundations of liturgical and sacred art as a living tradition; To encourage the use of original works of liturgical art in homes, parishes, schools, and other public spaces. To encourage the professional development of artists, at all levels from beginners to professionals, in improving their skills and knowledge of sacred art. To provide resources for parishes and schools regarding the role of sacred art in community life In order to achieve these goals, the Sacred Arts Guild of Alberta will seek: To sponsor activities which promote the professional and personal development of the members of the society; to organize occasional workshops and talks for its members and the broader community; to hold regular open studios times and seek to establish a shared studio space for its members. To sponsor occasional exhibitions of the work of the guild's members in order to make their work better known within the community; To sponsor an annual guild Mass for artists, patrons, and friends of the arts; To establish a directory of artists and artisans who are involved in the liturgical and sacred arts in Alberta; To collaborate with other organizations that promote sacred art nationally and internationally To provide referrals and information resources among members.

Mission Statement

The Focolare's spirituality is unity and its aim is to help fulfill Jesus' Prayer "That they may all be one" (Jn 17:21). People of all ages and backgrounds strive to achieve this by living with the presence of Jesus among them (Jesus in the midst) and by embracing Jesus Forsaken in every suffering. Jesus in the midst refers to the Gospel sentence in which Jesus states that where two or more people are united in His name, which means in His love, He is present there (see Mt. 18:20). So it's something immense: the Possibility of Christ's presence among us in our family, at work, school, our community, and allowing Him to guide and enlighten us. Jesus forsaken is the expression of the pain that Jesus suffered on earth, when at the climax of his suffering on the cross he cried out: "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" {Mk. 15:34) By welcoming Jesus' countenance in our personal suffering or in the suffering of other human beings, we can possess the key to unlock unity.
