MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the campaign is to bring together the body of Christ in a spirit of unity during a focused 40-day campaign of prayer, fasting, and peaceful activism, with the purpose of repentance, to seek God's favor to turn hearts and minds from a culture of death to a culture of life, thus bringing an end to abortion. 40 Days for Life is a community-based campaign that takes a determined, peaceful approach to showing local communities the consequences of abortion in their own neighborhoods, for their own friends and families. It puts into action a desire to cooperate with God in the carrying out of His plan for the end of abortion. It draws attention to the evil of abortion through the use of a three-point program: Prayer and fasting Constant vigil Community outreach The 40-day campaign tracks Biblical history, where God used 40-day periods to transform individuals, communities ... and the entire world. From Noah in the flood to Moses on the mountain to the disciples after Christ's resurrection, it is clear that God sees the transformative value of His people accepting and meeting a 40-day challenge.

MISSION STATEMENT

Faithful to the teachings of the Founder, the Apostolic Movement of Schoenstatt aims at forming personalities and Christian communities that are capable of freely supporting God's plan in the world in which they live. The formation proposed by the Movement is based on self-education, faith in Providence, the pursuit of holiness in daily life, and readiness and willingness to be instruments in God's hands. The particular purpose of the Movement is the spiritual renewal of Christians, which is achieved by promoting educational and religious activities and social projects, also in cooperation with other ecclesial movements.

MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to share the Light of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Joy of our Salvation, and our faith in Him through our own personal testimonies of the power of His Word such as our conversion through repentance and deliverance from the bondage of sin and vices; the transformation from our old self-centered, destructive and confused lives to new victorious lives in Christ Jesus; and the healing of our broken relationships and physical ailments. We want to let the people know that God is alive, that He loves and cares for us and that He is willing to forgive us, heal our diseases, and deliver us from all our troubles if we repent of our sins, turn away from our wicked ways, and establish a personal relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ Who shall set our hearts on fire with the love of God and neighbor.

MISSION STATEMENT

Be the rock of your domestic church! God Squad challenges men to show the same servant leadership to their families that Christ has for His bride, the Church. God Squad Canada was formed by four Calgary police officers who witnessed first hand the breakdown of families, and saw that this was largely due to an abdication of true fatherhood. With a desire to counter the fatherless culture, the first catholic men's conference was held in 1998. The God Squad, in recent years, has been focusing more on attracting younger men to give them the tools to succeed as husbands and fathers.

MISSION STATEMENT

In response to Pope Benedict XVI's call to be "custodians of beauty," the Sacred Arts Guild of Alberta (SAGA) is a community of artists and associates who are interested in the study, preservation, and renewal of traditional methods for creating liturgical and sacred art in the Christian tradition. Our purpose is: To promote increased awareness and appreciation of ways that the beauty of liturgical and sacred art can enhance the meaning and understanding of faith within homes and parish communities. To encourage dialogue and learning between the Catholic artistic tradition and other Christian expressions of sacred art, particularly the Eastern iconographic tradition; To bring together those who wish to deepen their understanding of the traditions and various forms that Christian art has taken over the centuries; To foster the recovery of ancient and traditional methods of art and craft making that can be used to create new, contemporary expressions of the faith. To inspire collaboration between artists and artisans in the creation of new works; To deepen the understanding of the historical and theological foundations of liturgical and sacred art as a living tradition; To encourage the use of original works of liturgical art in homes, parishes, schools, and other public spaces. To encourage the professional development of artists, at all levels from beginners to professionals, in improving their skills and knowledge of sacred art. To provide resources for parishes and schools regarding the role of sacred art in community life In order to achieve these goals, the Sacred Arts Guild of Alberta will seek: To sponsor activities which promote the professional and personal development of the members of the society; To organize occasional workshops and talks for its members and the broader community; To hold regular open studios times and seek to establish a shared studio space for its members. To sponsor occasional exhibitions of the work of the guild's members in order to make their work better known within the community; To sponsor an annual guild Mass for artists, patrons, and friends of the arts; To establish a directory of artists and artisans who are involved in the liturgical and sacred arts in Alberta; To collaborate with other organizations that promote sacred art nationally and internationally To provide referrals and information resources among members.

MISSION STATEMENT

Using the resources of Father Michael E. Gaitley, MIC, specifically "33 Days to Morning Glory" people of the parish go on an individual 33 day retreat in preparation for Marian Consecration. Each week individuals gather with a leader, who has been consecrated to Mary, and discuss the past weeks readings. Then at the end of the 33 days we gather as a group and say a consecration prayer of "Morning Glory", or by St Louis de Montfort, or St Maximilian Kolbe.

MISSION STATEMENT

Secular Franciscans are Catholic men and women who seek to deepen their faith and pattern their lives on Jesus Christ, in the spirit of St. Francis of Assisi. We live and work in society. We are married, single, old, young, and from all walks of life. We seek to proclaim, by our example, the love, joy and mercy of Christ to the world. We are an order within the Catholic church, and are members of local Fraternities. Led by the Holy Spirit, we strive for perfect charity in our secular state. By our profession, we pledge to live the gospel in the manner of St. Francis in accordance with the rules approved by the Church. To follow the gospel of Christ in the footsteps of St. Francis, who made Christ the inspiration and centre of his life with God and with people, going from gospel to life and life to the gospel. (That is close to Article 4 of the OFS Rule approved by Paul VI in 1978, which is what I meant to write.)

MISSION STATEMENT

Our only aim is to give honor and glory to God by encouraging devotion to Our Lady through praying the rosary. We do this by teaching students in our Catholic Schools and Youth, RCIA and other groups in our parishes how to make and pray the rosary and by making and sending rosaries to missions in Canada and overseas.

KNOWN AS

Focolare (Hearth or Family Fireside)

MISSION STATEMENT

The Focolare's spirituality is unity and its aim is to help fulfill Jesus' Prayer "That they may all be one" (Jn 17:21). People of all ages and backgrounds strive to achieve this by living with the presence of Jesus among them (Jesus in the midst) and by embracing Jesus Forsaken in every suffering.

Jesus in the midst refers to the Gospel sentence in which Jesus states that where two or more people are united in His name, which means in His love, He is present there (see Mt. 18:20). So it's something immense: the possibility of Christ's presence among us in our family, at work, school, our community, and allowing Him to guide and enlighten us.

Jesus forsaken is the expression of the pain that Jesus suffered on earth, when at the climax of his suffering on the cross he cried out: "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" {Mk. 15:34}

By welcoming Jesus' countenance in our personal suffering or in the suffering of other human beings, we can possess the key to unlock unity
